The Banner.

Official Paper of the County.

L. HARPER, Editor and Proprietor.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 3, 1879.

The Legislature of Ohio will convene on Tuesday next, January 7th.

Thurman and Seymour for President and Vice President, is the latest ticket out.

Ex-Senator Ramsey, of Minnesota, is the very last claimant for Bayard Taylor's old shoes.

We will not refuse gold dollars on subscription to the BANNER, but we greatly prefer greenbacks.

When the Columbus Democrat was but twenty-three days old, it grew to be as large as any of its contemporaries.

Resumption is now in operation, and everybody is now looking for the good times promised by the Republicans.

An attorney named Eager, who was eager to become rich by blackmailing operations, has been expelled from the Cleveland bar. Served him right.

Hon. Beverly Douglas, Congressman from Virginia, died at Washington on Sunday, from inflammation of the bowels. This creates another vacancy.

The Boston Post states that Grant's European tour thus far has cost him only $14, and we presume he will expect Congress to refund that amount, with interest.

After all, Private Dalzell is only an Ohio man by brevet. He obtained his first glimpse of the moon in Pennsylvania, and he has been somewhat lunny ever since.

The speech of Judge Geddes in the Inskip case, at Bellefontaine, on Saturday last, occupied the entire day, and is spoken of as one of the best legal efforts of his life.

There was a heavy snow storm in Western New York and Pennsylvania on Thursday last, which interfered considerably with the running of trains on all the Railroads.

Col. Fred. Grant, the son of his father, sailed from New York on the steamer Britannic, on Saturday, to join the Great American Dead-Beat in a free ride to India.

When a Columbus man visits Zanesville these days he is "spotted" by the police, and all his movements are watched until he departs, for fear he is in search of "stiffs."

Out of the twenty newspapers, more or less, published in Columbus, the Dispatch is the only one that has the courage to declare itself in favor of the re-nomination of Governor Bishop.

Our good friend Charles Matthews, the faithful editor of the New Philadelphia Democrat, is spoken of as a candidate for Representative from Tuscarawas county. He would make a capital legislator.

A Boston preacher—Rev. Edward Everett Hale—delivered a sermon on Sunday night on the life of Christ, illustrated with stereoscopic, or magic lantern views of the principal events in the life of the Savior.

Congressman Jones, of Delaware, thinks Ex-Governor Cox the most available man the Republicans can nominate for Governor. Mr. Jones expresses the belief that the Democrats will carry the Legislature.

Wade Hampton, who was disabled the other day by the kick of a mule, received eleven wounds during the wound without permanent injury. The hero must have been humiliated by his late mishap, besides losing his leg.

"Fighting Dick" Anderson, a Lieutenant General in the Confederate Army, has earned his bread since the war as a clerk at Charleston, but now has been compelled to leave South Carolina in search of employment.

Sam'l. J. Tilden, President of the U. S. R. M. Hayes, de facto, met at the U. S. Memorial services, New York, on Monday evening, took a good look at each other, but were silent as "dumb statues and breathless stones."

The Rev. James A. Dixon, of the New Albany, (Ind.) clergyman who made himself ridiculous and notorious by his foolish love-letters, tried to commit suicide at the Peabody Hotel, Memphis, Tenn., on Saturday, by taking a dose of strychnine.

In all his wanderings over the Old World, the great American Dead-Beat remembered that he had forgotten to visit Ireland; and he will do so at once, before starting on his journey to India. Having licked the South he now wants to lick the blarney stone.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: There has been one war already for the benefit of the Republican party. If that party can't stand on its own legs—and it can't—why hasn't it the manliness to die in a seemly manner, and relieve the public of its stench?

Ex-Congressman Owen Jones started from his residence at Wynnewood, Pa., on Christmas night to visit a neighbor and was found before midnight frozen to death by the roadside. Deceased represented the Fifth Pennsylvania district in the Thirty-fifth Congress.

"President" Cowles of the Cleveland Leader, appears to have been wholly ignored during the late bridge brigadoon—"Colonel" Parsons of the Herald and "Colonel" Armstrong of the Plain Dealer were selected as press orators on that occasion. More of the Pope's doings.

There is a fierce contest going on between John A. Logan and Charles Farwell for the U. S. Senatorship in Illinois. Farwell is trying to buy Logan off, but thus far he has not succeeded. These Illinois Radicals must have taken lessons from the Pennsylvania Camerons.

The grand Cleveland viaduct, or "Bridge of Sighs," was formally opened on Saturday, in the presence of a great crowd of people. Mayor Ross, Governor Bishop, Colonel Parsons, Major Armstrong, Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, and several other distinguished orators, entertained the people.

This is John Sherman's plan, under his own hand and seal: "The maintenance of a reserve of gold in the treasury ample to continue the redemption of United States notes; the refusal to force depreciated silver into circulation against the wishes and the interests of the business community; and finally, the omission to carry out the provision of existing law which requires the immediate release and the keeping in circulation of the redeemed legal tenders." John Sherman may defy the law, (says the Columbus Democrat) and he no doubt will, as he intends to, but the people are mightier than John Sherman and the Republican party and Wall street all combined. They will yet be heard.

Washington dispatch: A prominent Southern Senator, on having his attention called to the published statement that Senator Bayard would secure the endorsement of the solid South for the presidential nomination in 1880, said: "While Democracy of the South have a high regard for Senator Bayard, both as a man of sterling worth and undaunted loyalty to the Democratic party, they can not endorse his hard money views, and unless there is a general change of sentiment on the money question before the Democratic Convention meets to make a nomination, Senator Bayard will not, in my opinion, be able to secure the delegation of a single Southern State."

The Columbus Democrat of Saturday published a list of the pardons granted by Governor Bishop during a period of ten months, giving the names of the parties, the counties to which they are credited, and the crimes for which they were imprisoned. This list numbers ninety-six pardons, or nine and six-tenths per month. However large this number may appear, it doesn't equal the pardoning done by Governor Tom Young, who, during the last two months of his administration, sent forty-four penitentiary birds to their "happy homes."

Stephen D. Richards, the greatest murderer of the age, (whose arrest at Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county, was noticed in last week's BANNER,) was safely lodged in jail at Kearney, Nebraska, on Sunday—An immense crowd assembled at the Kearney depot, with the intention, it is supposed, of lynching the murderer; and upon learning this fact by telegraph the officers had the train stopped two miles this side of the town, and Richards was taken in a private conveyance to the jail.

The New York World prints what it claims to be an accurate list of the forty-sixth Congress, with the following recapitulation: Democrats..... 146 Republicans..... 129 Nationals..... 10 Tammany..... 3 Vacancy through death (XII N.)..... 1 To be chosen in California..... 4 Total..... 293

The walking match between O'Leary and Campa, at Gilmore's Garden, New York, came to a close on Saturday night, and resulted in an easy victory for the former. Campa was completely used up. The score stood: O'Leary, 400 miles 2 laps; Campa, 357 miles 2 laps. Campa was on the track 5 days 21 hours and 44 minutes; O'Leary was, on 5 days 21 hours 4 minutes and 10 seconds.

General Grant has sent a letter to General Sheridan saying that it would please him if Lieut. Col. Fred. Grant could be permitted to accompany him on his trip to India on the Richmond. Oh, yes, dead-heads, all the Grant family and Grant's relatives, and give them a free ride around the world on Government vessels. The people are rich, and don't mind the expense.

Dispatches from Washington intimate that John Sherman has "his eye set" on the Governorship of Ohio, believing that his financial policy will pull him through. Garfield and Foster are greatly displeased at this movement to head them off. There are many prominent Republicans who believe Sherman will be their candidate for President in 1880.

The members of the firm of Adams & Co., the Cincinnati bankers who lately suspended, were arrested on Friday last on a warrant, charging them with fraudulent disposal of their money and property. They were taken before Judge Stallo, on a writ of habeas corpus, who released them on the nominal bail of $500 each, to answer before the grand jury.

W. Milnor Roberts will leave for Rio Janeiro on the 4th of January, with his family. He has been selected by the Emperor of Brazil to superintend important improvements in that region. Mr. Roberts ranks among the first civil engineers of the day, and Dom Pedro is fortunate in securing his services.

The Columbus Democrat three weeks ago announced its Presidential ticket to be Thurman and Abbott. It now declares itself for Henry B. Payne and Samuel S. Cox. Next week it will probably take a fancy to some other names. For eccentricity the Democrat surpasses the Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Sandusky Register (Rep.) says there is a heap of bosh about Ohio being the Presidential battle ground, and that Ohio Republicans will do well to drop all talk of an Ohio man for the ticket in 1880. Ohio has no candidate in 1879, and it would be the height of folly for Ohio Republicans to expect the other States to yield to them again.

Permanent Exhibition Buildings in Cincinnati may now be regarded as a certainty. The popular subscription of $100,000 having been secured, Mr. Renben Springer's subscription of $50,000 will now be available. The Paris of America is famous for its music as it is for its dogs and its beer.

Mr. Reuben Springer, of Cincinnati, who gave the munificent sum of $50,000 towards the erection of the great Music Hall in that city, is a retired merchant, and a devout Catholic.

A young man from the country was in town yesterday, and entered a photograph gallery to have his picture taken. After seeing him, the operator told him to assume a pleasant expression—"Think of something cheerful," he said—"Think of your girl." A terrible scowl took possession of the young man's face, and jumping up he exclaimed: "Think of the deuce! She went home with another fellow last night, and she can go to thunder, for me!" He evidently thought of her, but the pleasant expression was not forthcoming.—Norristown Herald.

Gov. Bishop's genial countenance and glowing benediction, the procession, the platform and the banquet yesterday. The Governor was cordially welcomed to Cleveland by citizens of all classes and parties.—Cleveland Herald.

Most Atrocious Murder. NORWALK, Conn., Dec. 28.—A terrible murder was committed on Raton Hill, near this city, last night. The victim was Mr. Schulte, a wealthy gentleman residing on the hill, and it is believed the murder was committed by tramps, who were informed that Schulte carried a large sum of money on his person, and had concealed nearly $50,000 in his house, and was in the habit of having large sums so concealed in preference to putting them in the bank. The murder was committed near Schulte's residence, and his servant, William Bucholz, was also attacked at the same time. The man's head was cut open with a hatchet, and a small wound, apparently made with a knife, was found under the left ear. A coroner's jury made little progress in taking testimony, as Bucholz understands but little English, and that he testified came through an interpreter. State Attorney Almstead has ordered the arrest of Bucholz, and he is being held to await the result of the coroner's investigation.

Snatching an Insurrection. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—A passenger by the steamer Granada, just arrived from Panama and way ports, reports that as the Granada was leaving Mazatlan, bound north, news was received of a severe battle between the forces of the clerical chief Lerma and the National troops of General Escadero, the military commander at Guadalupe. Lerma, with his Indians, had captured the town of Tepic in the name of the clerical party, and he held the road leading from Tepic to the coast of San Blas. Upon the advance of Escadero, Lerma marched out to meet him, but was totally defeated and slain. The adherents captured, of whom eighty were immediately hanged. The rest of those captured claiming to have forced into the rebel service, were allowed to go to their homes.

Guilty, Most Guilty. CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—The trial of Mrs. Malinda Mack, indicted with the hired man, Frank Dickerson, for the murder of her husband, closed this morning with a verdict of guilty from the jury, with the extreme penalty of the law (State's prison for life) for the woman. Dickerson will be tried later. He turned State's evidence during the trial and testified that Mrs. Mack had killed her husband with a stick of fire wood and persuaded him to help carry the body to the barn, where the two placed it under the feet of the horse and the animal backed over the body several times to give it the appearance of having been kicked to death. He also swore that improper relations had existed between himself and Mrs. Mack for several months. The case excited much attention.

Rather Thin Story, Miss. PEORIA, ILL., Dec. 28.—Last Thursday night a girl named Maggie Lahero was kidnapped on Fulton street. Her story is she was carried off in a sleigh by a couple of masked men, and after chloroforming her they took her into the country and after tying her to a tree set fire to her clothes. Consciousness then returned and with the flames she burned the things that bound her hands, and with snow extinguished the fire. A farmer came along after, and hearing her cries took her to the house, where she was found yesterday. Her story seems improbable, but is strongly vouched for by being given by a girl taken home she relapsed into unconscious state, in which she still lies.

Unpleasant Christmas Work. CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—R. C. Wheeler & Co., the "Company" being Charles P. Forbus, engaged in buying and selling hogs on commission, bought a lot of stock from different parties on Christmas, gave their checks for the same and sold them to another dealer the same day. When the original owners of the stock presented their checks yesterday at the bank where Wheeler & Co. deposited, it was found that Forbus had withdrawn the entire amount of the firm's deposit—$23,000, and the checks were worthless. Forbus was arrested and imprisoned last night. He admits drawing the money, and says it was applied in discharging other indebtedness of the firm.

Breaks of a Pretty Girl. URBANA, Dec. 25.—Last night Harry Smith and Miss Mary Pennock called at the residence of Rev. Spahr, and presenting the proper credentials, were married by the reverend gentleman. This morning the bride took the groom home to her father's house and presented him to her friends as a Christmas gift. The affair was a great surprise to both families, and has been the general theme of conversation of the street to-day. Miss Pennock is one of the prettiest and most accomplished ladies in Urbana.

Ohio and Kentucky Horses in Egypt. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—General Lo Duc, Commissioner of the Agriculture, received a letter from C. P. Stone, at Cairo, Egypt, in which it is announced that the English and Scottish horse raisers who have been in the habit of furnishing carriage horses of high quality to this country, now state that they cannot compete with the horse raising of Kentucky and Ohio, who send fine carriage horses to England, and can undersell the native Egyptian horse raisers.

General Sherman Favors the Army Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—General Sherman, in a letter to General Burnside in regard to a bill for reduction and reorganization of the army, prepared by a joint committee of the House and Senate, says: "At first I doubt the wisdom of attempting such a law, but on more careful examination I found that the bill is consistent in all its details, and will probably bring harmony to all parts of the service."

The Blaine Committee Without Funds. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The Comptroller of the Currency decided that the Blaine Investigating Committee cannot use the unexpended balance of the appropriation made for the Blaine investigation last winter. This leaves the Blaine Committee without funds, and will prevent the commencement of the investigation until after the reassembling of Congress.

Specimen of Columbus Smartness. The Sunday Furay. If Ben Harper of the Mt. Vernon Friday Banner, will go before the Pottor Committee and tell all that he don't know about the movement to make Thurman a candidate for Governor, it will create a rise in the paper market.

William Callen Bryant set out in life as a lawyer, in Western Massachusetts; where he was born, and anticipated making his living by that profession. But, so probable reason why he gave it up, so Mr. George D. Hilliard thinks, was the loss of a suit, which had been appealed against him and carried to the State Supreme Court. The case was Bloss vs. Tobey, reported in the Massachusetts books at length.

A Berlin dispatch says that Bayard Taylor left very little property. His death was unexpected by himself. He was ever ready to lend benevolent aid to others, and he doubtless thought he had thought time yet in life in which to provide for his family. His widow alone possesses nothing, excepting his assurance policy of $10,000.

The Bell-Jones Elopement. Columbus Dispatch. Samuel C. Bell, son of Hon. William Bell, Jr., Railroad Commissioner, and Miss Mary W. Jones, daughter of Mr. O. L. Jones, of Kilbourne, Jones & Co., were married at the residence of Mrs. Ocheltree Newark—grandmother of the groom—at 8:30 p. m., Saturday. Neither family knew anything about the marriage. It is stated, until the young man telegraphed to his father to get a license in this county and send it on the first train. The young man seems, supposed he would get a license in Newark, his former home. They returned to Columbus that night, arriving at 1 a. m., Sunday morning and are the guests of the groom's parents. It is stated that the couple, lady was forbidden to receive attention from Mr. Bell. They were determined to have things otherwise, and got up a little elopement case on their own account.

Archbishop Purcell's Debts. CINCINNATI, Dec. 30.—A meeting of the church officials of the diocese was held to-night at the cathedral, at which committees were appointed to visit every parish in the diocese and take subscriptions to aid Archbishop Purcell in his financial distress. The indications are that the indebtedness of his Grace are greater than has been supposed by most people, and by some it is believed that not even the entire property of the diocese, the parishes are very large. It is probable that the real amount of the indebtedness is not known, as Father Edward's system of accounts is said to have been such that to learn the liability is almost impossible, except as the certificates of deposit are presented.

BISMARCK, DAKOTA, Dec. 29.—Lieutenant Harry Tiffany, of the eleventh infantry, Fort Custer, who recently deserted while attending court martial at Fort Keogh, was dropped to sleep, it is asserted, by threatened disclosure of forged pay rolls sold in Bismarck, and the proceeds lost by him at Faro.
